Honored Citizen Dies Suddenly

J. M. Hutchison Who Spent His Entire Life Here, Dies at the Age of 84 Years

Waverly lost from its midst this week an old and honored citizen, one who not only spent his entire life here, but more than the life of the town itself, as he was born in 1830 on a farm just south of the present location of Waverly. Mr. Hutchison's death came suddenly, following a few hours illness Wednesday, it not being realized that his condition was serious until the end came.

Though having slight pains in the chest for two or three days little was thought of it, and Wednesday morning, Mr. Hutchison in company with Dr. Hughes, Edwin Batty and A. W. Reagel went to Dr. Hughes' orchard west of town. He became sick while there and was brought back to town, reaching home shortly before noon. He was unable to lie down owing to difficulty of breathing but did not seem to be sick while sitting or walking around the house except for the pain in his chest. He ate a very hearty dinner considering his condition and again attempted to lie down but had to get up in order to get his breath. About four o'clock he suddenly grew worse, became unconscious and died about half past four.

John Miller, son of James and Aletha Hutchison was born in Waverly, Illinois, December 3, 1830 and departed this life at his home in this city October 6, 1915 at the age of 84 years 9 months and 3 days.

He was one of a family of eight children: two sisters, Mrs. Mary Meacham and Mrs. Margaret McVey, and three brothers, William Joseph and David preceded him to his heavenly home.

He was converted at the age of seventeen years and joined the First M. E. church in this city and was a member at the time of his death.

He has always been an active member of the church and was always to be found in his place in the Sunday school, prayer meeting and preaching services, both morning and evening.

Mr. Hutchison was united in marriage to Mary Seymour of Franklin, December 28, 1849. She departed this life November 30, 1911.

To this union were born seven children. Mrs. Jane Church, the eldest, departed this life April 6, 1896. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. R. J. Moulton of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. C. E. Peet of St. Louis; J. O. Hutchison, of Chicago; Mrs. Julia Harris, Mrs. Leona Jasper and Mrs. B. Reinbach of this city. Besides his children he has raised from infancy his granddaughter, Ouida White.

Also fourteen grand children, fourteen great grandchildren, his half sister, Mrs. C. F. Meacham and half brother S. H. Hutchison of Farmersville are left to mourn his loss.

He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Masonic lodge.

A loved one from us is gone,

A voice we love is still

A place is vacant in our home,

Which never can be filled."

Funeral services will be held at the First M.E. church Sunday, October 10th, at 1 o'clock p.m.
