GEO. W. LOVING PASSES TO THE BEYOND

George W. Loving, one of our best known, and most beloved citizens after a short illness departed from this life last Saturday morning, May 5, 1923 at 10:45 o'clock. Mr. Loving's death was a severe shock felt by everyone.

Especially do the children mourn the absence of this grand old man, who always had a kind word and an affectionate smile for each one at all times. As a veteran of the Civil War, he was a staunch supporter of the American Legion and was in full sympathy with legislative measures for the benefit of World War veterans.

Funeral services were held from the Congregational church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The body was shipped to Virden, ILL., the following day for internment. Deceased was born on the 10th day of January, 1844. He grew to young manhood on a farm near Waverly and when the call came to join the colors when the Civil war broke out, he was one of the first young men of the neighborhood to enlist. He was in the service from 1861 to 1865, a member of Company "G", 101, Illinois infantry. He was in the battles of Lookout Mountain and Shiloh, Siege of Vicksburg, Sherman's march to the sea, and many other battles. He received his honorable discharge in 1865, with a record full of courage and bravery.

He was married to Adelia Rosson of Waverly, Illinois, October 11, 1866. She died in November 1899. To this union were born seven children, four boys and three girls, who are all living, Parris E., of Stewart Lake, Canada, Arthur S., of Rockford, Illinois, Mrs. Samuel Haggard and Mrs. William Roberts of Virden, Illinois, Edward H. and Charles S. of Omaha, Nebr., and Mrs. Harvey Stenson of Sutton.

Mr. Loving moved from Illinois to Sutton, Nebraska, with his seven motherless children in March 1892, and resided all these years in the home known as "Loving's corner" and he will be greatly missed by his many friends who as they passed daily by his home, were always sure of a warm greeting from him. He united with the Methodist Episcopal church in boyhood and has ever since remained a faithful member of that church
